

Contacting your California Legislators

- ☒ State of California – State Legislature Page
http://www.legislature.ca.gov/legislators\_and\_districts/legislators/your\_legislator.html
- ☒ Find your Legislator by zip code
<http://www.leginfo.ca.gov/yourleg.html>
- ☒ Who is on what committee in the State Assembly?
ftp://leginfo.public.ca.gov/pub/dailyfile/asm/assembly\_committees
- ☒ Who is on what committee in the State Senate?
ftp://leginfo.public.ca.gov/pub/dailyfile/sen/senate\_committees
- ☒ A Guide for Accessing California Legislative Information on the Internet
http://www.leginfo.ca.gov/guide.html#Appendix\_A
- ☒ Contacting your federal representatives and lawmakers
<http://w2.eff.org/congress>

Note: Send a fax, and back it up with an e-mail if you can. 9/11 has imposed additional security measures that affect your ability to reach federal and state legislators. It can take up to three weeks for your letter to pass through all the necessary security screenings. This is less of a challenge on the local level.

